

1

My business plan.

For the kid boss and a grown-up. Fill it in together.

Grown-up start here

Pick a business together, then help your kid fill in this plan and the price math.

Fill in and sign the safety agreement together before the first day.

Stay close on the day, and hand over the certificate at the end.

My business

Business name: _____

What I sell or do: _____

Who will buy it: _____

Why they will like it: _____

Where and when

Place: _____

Day: _____ Time: _____

My helpers: _____

My goal

Money goal for the day: $ _____

What I will do with the money: _____

Printable PDF · 5 US Letter pages (8.5 × 11 in) · Print at home · Black-and-white friendly

Created by me.

A grown-up checks your town's rules and decides what you sell. Not legal advice.

ReadyWhenYouAre · Kid's First Business Kit (free mini)

2

Costs and price math.

Write down what you spend, then pick a price. A grown-up helps with the math.

What I buy	It cost $	It makes this many	Cost for each $

My price math

Cost for each cup or item: $ _____

My price for each: $ _____

Profit for each sale (price minus cost): $ _____

Sales I need to earn back what I spent: _____

My goal for the day: $ _____

Profit is the money left over after you pay back what you spent.

3 Parent safety agreement.

Fill this in together before the first day. Everyone signs at the bottom.

Where and when

My spot: _____

Days and times: _____

My grown-up nearby: _____

Our safety rules

- ☐ A grown-up is with me or can see me the whole time.
- ☐ I sell only at the spot we picked. No door-to-door without my grown-up.
- ☐ I never go inside a customer's house or car.
- ☐ I do not share my last name, address, or school.
- ☐ If someone makes me feel unsure, I get my grown-up right away.
- ☐ I stop when it gets too hot, too dark, or too wet.

Money rules

- ☐ My grown-up keeps the money box close by.
- ☐ Big bills go straight to my grown-up.

At the end, the money goes to: _____

If I sell food or drinks

- ☐ My grown-up checks our town's rules first.
- ☐ Clean hands, clean cups, and a covered cooler.

Kid boss signature: _____ Date: _____

Grown-up signature: _____ Date: _____

A grown-up checks your town's rules and decides what you sell. Not legal advice.

4

Big sign and price board.

Your business name big and bold, with prices you write in.

We are open.

Business name: _____

Open from _____ to _____

Price board

What I sell	Price $

Write big and dark so people can read it from the sidewalk.

5

I ran my first business.

A certificate to sign and keep.

Certificate

This says that

Kid boss: _____

ran a real business called _____

Date: _____ Signed by my grown-up: _____

A grown-up checks your town's rules and decides what you sell. Not legal advice.

Get the full 14-page Kid's First Business Kit on Etsy. More free guides and kits at readywhenyouarekits.com